Recent meetings: have had guest speakers – Fire and Ambulance Services, Snr Constable Hamish Buick on Local Law, Order and Crime, Views on beach front car parking, Citizens Advice Bureau, Springboard, and the Commonwealth Games. Future topics include – NAG (separation from Auckland Council) and our local clubs:- Tennis, indoor and outdoor Bowls, Garden Circle etc

We have recently worked on the following:

- maintaining the liquor ban
- restoration of the shoreline to protect the Ercegs Walkway
- Expanding Sunrise playground adding new swings, Flying Fox, basket swing, rotating climbing net, and a slide
- Installing swings at Sunburst playground
- Obtaining interim improvements at the Hill St junction Warkworth
- Auckland Unitary Plan
- Rodney Local Board Plan
- 10 year Auckland budget plan
- Te Whau Esplanade and Snells Beach to Warkworth walkways

We are working on:

- Essential reconstruction of the Mahurangi East Road between Governor Gray and Arabella, along with extending the footpath there.
- Proper attention to fix the condition of Sandspit Road's roller coaster features.
- Fund raising for the completion of the Sunrise playground with further new items.
- Replacing old tables on the beachfront.
- Supporting the construction of the Matakana Link Road.
- Getting water quality monitoring in Kawau Bay.
- Ensuring the appropriate use of the carparks, especially by campervans.

Joining: We urge you to join our Association, come along to our meetings and help make Snells Beach an even better place to live. Please see joining form overleaf.
